

Ascension Day Party Planner

One month in advance: Decide on a date, time, and food menu

- Make your guest list
- Create & send your invitations (paper or digital)
- Create a shopping list for food and other items

Three weeks in advance: Choose activities and/or games for the party.

- Lawn games
- Family Time activity, if desired
- Your family's favorite game

Two weeks in advance: Follow up with your guest list.

- Call/text/email your guests and remind them of the invitation to your party
- Begin gathering non-perishable supplies

One week in advance:

- Choose someone in the family to Read Psalm 110 at the party. Give them time to practice each day.
- Choose someone in the family to pray for the food. Help them write out the prayer and practice it daily.

One - two days before: Do your food shopping and any other last minute supplies.

- Pray for your guests

Day of: Set- up games and activities.

- Prepare food
- Put up decorations
- Review the Scriptures from the Victorious King activity as a family

Consider making this a party for your community/life/discipleship group. Invite others, even non-believers, and help them understand why you love Jesus! "Come celebrate Jesus and the end of Spring with our family! Jesus is still alive and on His Throne!"
